

ROT
PUNKT
KÜCHEN

Checklist for kitchen planning.

The first step to a new kitchen

BUYING A KITCHEN.

Before you visit a kitchen specialist in a kitchen or furniture store, it is advisable to discuss and clarify the key points with your family in advance. The checklist below may help you.

You can fill out and print the checklist here so that you are well prepared for buying your kitchen from your local specialist retailer.

Your household.

- How many people live in your household?
- How many of these are children?
- How many people normally work in your kitchen?

Budget.

What is your budget for your kitchen?

- Up to € 2.500
- Up to € 5.000
- Up to € 10.000
- Up to € 20.000
- Up to € 30.000
- Up to € 50.000
- Undecided

Are existing appliances to be integrated?

- Yes
- No

If so, which ones?

- Refrigerator
- Freezer
- Built-in cooker
- Built-in oven
- Hob
- Extractor hood
- Microwave
- Dishwasher
- Washing machine
- Fridge-freezer combination

Your kitchen surroundings.

Do you have storage space that is not in the kitchen?

Yes

No

Will other jobs be done in the kitchen?

Yes

No

If so, which ones?

Your kitchen design.

What style of kitchen do you prefer?

- Handleless kitchens
- Kitchens with island
- Modern kitchens
- Dark kitchens
- Light kitchens
- Kitchen units
- Colorful kitchens
- Kitchens with (real) wood
- Country kitchens

The kitchen as a living area should be:

- Open
- Closed

Are tall wall units to be planned in?

- Yes
- No

Do you want glass units?

- Yes
- No

Preparatory work and connections.

What preparatory work are you planning?

- New floor
- New installations
- New wall tiles
- Structural changes

What types of energy are available?

- Electricity
- Gas

Accommodating the refrigerator / freezer.

The refrigerator
should be planned:

- In a tall unit
- freestanding
- Under the worktop

The freezer should be planned:

- In a tall unit
- freestanding
- Under the worktop

The fridge/freezer combination should be planned:

- In a tall unit
- freestanding
- As a stand-alone appliance

Special units.

Your kitchen should include the following special units:

- Towel dryer unit
- Tall larder units
- Tall apothecary units
- Pull-out units
- Spice units
- Base unit with waste sorting
- Cutlery drawers
- Pull-out unit with bottle basket
- Tall unit as a broom cupboard, for example
- Shelves
- Drawer unit
- Corner units

Cooking and baking.

- The built-in cooker:
- Installed at eye level
 - With separate hob
 - With hob on top
- The cooking top hob:
- Installed flush
 - Installed set forward
 - Installed in the corner
 - as an island solution
- The extractor hood:
- Exhaust
 - Recirculation
 - Decorative (e.g. as a tower hood)
 - Concealed (e.g. as a flat cooker hood)
- The hob:
- Stainless steel
 - Ceramic
 - Enamel
 - As a stand-alone cooking element

Washing.

- The sink:
- Two basins with draining board
 - One basin with waste basin and draining board
 - With waste disposal unit
 - Accessories with chopping board, sieve, etc.

- The tap(s):
- Single-arm mixer
 - Two-arm mixer
 - With pull-out jet hose

- Do you want a dishwasher?
- Yes
 - No

- Do you want waste separation?
- Yes
 - No

- If yes, how wide?
- 45 cm
 - 60 cm

- How will the water be heated?
- Boiler tank
 - Continuous-flow heater

- What will go in the sink base unit?
- Waste bin
 - Cleaning materials pull-out

The dining.

The dining area should be:

- Bar table, bar, add-on table
- The dining area is a separate area

Lighting and miscellaneous.

The lighting should be:

- LED spot lighting
- LED fascia lighting
- Lighting in the units
- Lighting for the pull-outs
- Other lighting

Miscellaneous:

- Sideboards
- Wall shelves
- Recess panelling

- Handles
- Handleless

Will additional furniture be needed for a utility room or dressing room, for example?

- Yes
- No

If so, which ones?

Fronts.

Which front should it be?

- Real wood
- Wood veneer
- Laminated fronts
- Lacquered fronts
- Sustainable fronts

welcome home.

Rotpunkt Küchen GmbH
Ladestraße 52
32257 Bünde
Germany
Tel. +49 5223 6900-0
info@rotpunktkuechen.de rotpunktkuechen.de